SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

An officer investigated an alleged rape that occurred on Friday night. The victim took herself to a Modesto hospital for a sexual assault exam and the nurse notified TPD. The suspect is an ex-boyfriend who the victim was having drinks with the night of. She woke up the next morning in his bed without the bottom half of her clothes on, and she did not remember much of what occurred, but believes she was taken advantage of while passed out. The investigation is ongoing and an Emergency Protective Order was obtained.
