SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Swing shift was steady with calls for service for most of our shift. We ended up taking a total of eight report calls. Today we responded to Donnelly Park for the report of a subject who might have a firearm on his person. Several officers responded to this location. We searched the park and ended up locating the responsible. We learned the firearm that was seen by the reporting party was a BB gun. A warrant check on this individual revealed he had a no bail warrant for his arrest. He was arrested and booked on his warrant without incident. Later on in the shift, we responded to the 4300 block of Colorado Ave for the report of an assault. We arrived on scene and learned no assault had in fact taken place. The suspect did damage the victim's property though. This suspect was ultimately arrested for misdemeanor vandalism and booked into jail. Lastly, we responded to a business located in the 2000 block of W. Main St for the report of a subject damaging some property. We arrived on scene and located the suspect. After speaking with the reporting party, we learned the suspect had damaged a large planter. This suspect was arrested and booked for felony vandalism. CTO's: None completed during this shift.
