Day shift had another slow start to the day then things picked up as it progressed. We made two warrant arrests for narcotics related charges and a felony child abuse warrant. The narcotics warrant subject was released on a citation and the other was booked in jail. We made a third arrest for a felony domestic violence incident that was initially thought to be a kidnapping. The suspect in that case was arrested and booked. Not much else exciting to report during our shift.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Calls for service were steady for this evening. We completed 8 reports during our shift. Turlock Police responded to an altercation at a business in the 2900 Block of North Tegner. Witnesses reported observing an altercation between a male and a female. Officers arrived on scene and contacted the two individuals. Through the course of the investigation it was determined that the male assaulted the female, which was witnessed by people nearby. The male was ultimately arrested and booked for domestic violence related charges. A traffic stop resulted in the arrest of the driver who had an outstanding felony warrant out of Monterey County. He was later booked into jail.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

We had another steady night with calls for service. Today one of our officers was flagged down by a witness who had on-viewed a possible theft from a business. This occurred near the 2100 block of Fulkerth Rd. The suspect had left in a vehicle which was located nearby. The associated vehicle was stopped and the occupants were contacted. Through our investigation, the passenger in the vehicle was arrested on two felony warrants. A search of this person also revealed narcotics. The individual was arrested without incident.
