SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was an unusual shift. Calls for service were dramatically lower than usual. We completed 3 report calls during our shift. This allowed time for officers to complete the reports they took throughout their work week. We responded to a weapons call located in the 400 Block of Locust Ave. Officers arrived on scene and began their investigation. Officers were told that one subject had a weapon and fled the scene. This is an on-going investigation.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was our shift's Friday. Officers stayed busy with responding to calls for service while also completing their reports from the week. Today one of our officers self-initiated a suspicious person / vehicle contact near the 2400 block of N. Tegner Rd. During this contact, we discovered one of the occupants had three misdemeanor warrants for their arrest. This individual was arrested without incident. An officer was flagged down by an individual near the 2500 block of Geer Rd. This individual informed the officer he was feeling suicidal. He was detained without incident and transported to a local hospital for a mental health evaluation.
