SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Steady shift throughout the night. During this shift Officers investigated two separate domestic violence incidents, both with the suspects fleeing before police arrived on scene. Warrants will be sought in both instances. Officers investigated an aggravated assault which originally was thought to have occurred in the Sheriff's Department's jurisdiction. Officer learned that the incident occurred at a bar in the downtown area. The victim was assaulted and struck with an object. He was transported to an area hospital for treatment. The investigation is active.
