It was a busy Sunday night with calls for service and self-initiated activity. Officers made several traffic stops that resulted in DUI and warrant arrest. During one traffic stop, an officer saw a vehicle blowing through stop signs and initiated a traffic stop. The driver of the vehicle turned off its lights and evaded the officer, leading the officer on a pursuit. The driver eventually fled from the vehicle and ran on foot. Officers lost sight of the male driver and began to search the area. A male who was suspected of being the driver was contacted nearby and was displaying signs of intoxication. Although officers were unable to positively identify the male as the driver, an arrest was made on the male for a probation violation. He was arrested and booked.
