SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Saturday started off busy, with several alarm calls and suspicious incidents right after briefing. Once officers handled those incidents, a few of them spent time in the area of the downtown and kept an eye on the market. During the market, officers responded to a report of a subject who was harassing one of the vendors. This subject had tried to enter one of the vendor booths. Officers located the subject and he was arrested for warrants and narcotics related crimes. Later in the day, officers responded to a residential area for two neighbors who were involved in a verbal dispute. One of the neighbors sprayed the other with water and was eventually arrested for battery.
