SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a relatively quiet first day of our work week. Officers spent most of their time patrolling areas of their assigned beats that were experiencing a rise in reported crimes. Officers investigated a non-injury collision that occurred during the shift. They also responded to a subject who was at a local restaurant and was refusing to leave. He had been asked numerous times by the employees to leave, but he refused. He would then contact patrons exiting the drive through and ask for money. When officers contacted the subject, they found he had 4 active warrants for similar activity in Modesto. The subject was arrested and booked into jail.

SHIFT: SWING SHIFT

Sgt. Crawford

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 9

CATEGORIES

1 Weapon Violation	2 Resisting Arrest	1 Narcotics
1 Larceny from Vehicle	1 Accident-Minor Injury	2 Warrant Arrests
1 Trespassing

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The calls for service were minimal for a Friday night. However, officers made numerous self-initiated stops resulting in several arrests for warrants, narcotics and false identification. There were a group of approximately 100 bicyclists causing a traffic hazard throughout town for a couple hours. They seem to have met up at Town Center and rode their way west on W. Main to Diane, Fulkerth, Dels, and Christoffersen where the group dwindled to about 20 riders. There were a handful of adults in the group but mostly juveniles.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT

Sgt. Cervantez

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 1

CATEGORIES

1 Resisting Arrest

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers were proactive during the night due to the fact that calls for service was low. 11 traffic stops were made and several citations were issued. An officer also contacted a male who had a warrant. The male lied about his identity and gave his brother's name. His real name was determined and he was charged with providing false name to police. He was arrested and booked into jail.
