1 Auto Theft

1 Larceny

1 Narcotics Arrest

1 Death Investigation

1 Animal Cruelty

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a slow rainy morning but the rain stopped and it got busier. An officer stopped a vehicle and arrested a female for driving with a suspended license and her male passenger for possession of narcotics. An officer investigated an animal cruelty case where a dog was abused and died from the injuries. The owner was arrested and booked for felony animal cruelty. This afternoon, an officer investigated a death of an elderly female in her home. The investigation revealed nothing suspicious at this time. The coroner responded along with animal control to take possession of cats.

SHIFT: SWING SHIFT

Ofc. Conrad

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 4

CATEGORIES

1 Narcotics

1 Warrant Arrest

1 Assist Other Agency

1 Kidnapping

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Despite only pulling 4 reports, swing shift officers remained busy with calls for service. At about 1900 hours officers responded to the area of Almond Ave and N Golden State Blvd for what started as a 911 security check. However, the call evolved when a female called back claiming to have been kidnapped by her boyfriend, but had been able to escape his vehicle. Officers were able to locate her and take her to a safe location for an interview. The male was not located, but a Ramey warrant was issued for a slew of felony charges.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT
