SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Monday night was an active shift, up until 2am. After that time the cold seemed to keep things quiet. During the shift officers made several arrests for various crimes. They arrested a total of 3 people for warrants. Officers made a traffic stop on a vehicle and ended up arresting two subjects for possession of nitrous gas. They were believed to be using the gas to intoxicate themselves. Officers also arrested a subject for prowling, after receiving 2 separate calls for service, both describing the same subject description and behavior. Officers located the subject and he was taken to jail.
