SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Happy Thanksgiving! The city behaved itself for the first couple hours and then the calls started coming in. Officers responded to a female passed out on a city walking path. She was found sleeping on a park bench and had a warrant for her arrest. She was booked for the warrant. A call came in of a male at a hotel yelling at staff and customers and scaring children. Officers arrived and spotted him outside the hotel. He ran inside when he saw them and hid behind the clerk's counter. He was quickly detained and determined to be under the influence of drugs. He was booked for public intoxication. Another male was causing a disturbance at Donnelly Park skate park and reportedly had a knife. Officers located him walking away from the park. His alcohol consumption had influenced his behavior and he was in possession of a concealed fixed blade dagger in his jacket pocket. He went to jail for possession of a concealed dagger. The day was busy but our stomachs were full, thanks to Ed and Tina Yonan and family, who provided a full spread of food for all of the staff working at TPD today. Much appreciated!

1 DWI w/ Hit & Run
Accident

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Thanksgiving night was not a very busy night for us. Officers made 2 arrests, one being for trespassing and the other for a DWI involving a hit & run. The accident was witnessed by a passerby, who followed the responsible vehicle and called TPD. Officers were able to contact the fleeing car and take the driver into custody. He was found to be intoxicated and was taken to jail for DWI and hit & run. The suspect had rear ended a parked car and then fled the area. It was a good Turkey Day!
