SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Saturday night started off being slow. Officers spent time in the downtown area, being visible and making several car stops. No issues were had in the downtown area tonight. As the night continued, several calls for service popped up. One being a vehicle that fled from an officer at a high rate of speed. After about a mile the vehicle finally decided to pull over. The driver was found to be extremely intoxicated, was arrested, and eventually booked into jail. We also received a call from CHP, asking us to look for a vehicle that was following another vehicle, and claiming someone stole their keys. In the end, no out of jurisdictional crime was found, but the vehicle did collide with a city fire hydrant. The driver was also intoxicated. He refused to cooperate and was eventually booked into jail after obtaining medical clearance and a blood draw.
