SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was steady all day with calls for service. For some reason, today was the day to report your wallet lost. We had 3 of those. This morning, officers responded to two calls of defiant juveniles not wanting to go back to school. No police action was taken. Officers handled a death investigation, a burglary of a business, and call where an adult male went to jail for a warrant. Other than that, there were a handful of miscellaneous disturbance type calls.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a steady shift with several vehicle accidents occurring. An officer saw a male he recognized from prior contacts and believed he was wanted. The officer contacted the male and confirmed he had nine outstanding warrants. He was arrested and booked. Officers responded to a domestic disturbance. A husband and wife were arguing and began shoving each other. The husband had a court "get-along" order protecting the wife. He was arrested for battery and violating the order. He had to be medically cleared before going to jail due to complaints of chest pain and difficulty breathing.
